SAFETY TIP OF THE WEEK:

- Signs of a Break-in: Do not go inside if you suspect someone has been, or still is in your home. Call for help from a neighbor's home or away from the scene. Do not touch anything. Look for these signs-

- A cut or removed window screen
- A broken window
- A door left open
- Items in disarray or moved
- A noise that sounds like someone breaking in or moving around in your home.

If you are in the house:

1) Do not confront the burglar
2) Try to get out of the house undetected
3) Lock yourself in a room with a phone
4) Try to get a phone to quietly call for help, or activate panic alarm if possible
5) If the intruder enters your room, and you cannot hide, pretend to be asleep.
